Join us in the fight for socialism!

Workers World Party is a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist party inside the belly of the imperialist beast. We are a multinational, multigenerational and multigendered organization that not only aims to abolish capitalism, but to build a socialist society because it's the only way forward!

Capitalism and imperialism threaten the peoples of the world and the planet itself in the neverending quest for ever-greater profits.

Capitalism means war and austerity, racism and repression, attacks on im/migrants, misogyny, LGBTQ2S+ oppression and mistreatment of people with disabilities. It means joblessness, increasing homelessness and impover-
ishment and lack of hope for the future.
No social problems can be solved under capitalism.

The U.S. is the richest country in the world, yet no one has a guaranteed right
to shelter, food, water, health care, education or anything else — unless they can pay for it. Wages are lower than ever, and youth are saddled with seemingly insurmountable student debt, if they even make it to college. Black, Brown and Indigenous youth and trans people are gunned down by cops and bigots on a regular basis.

The ruthless ruling class today seeks to wipe out decades of gains and benefits won by hard-fought struggles by people's movements. The super-rich and their political representatives have intensified their attacks on the multinational, mul-tigender and multigenerational working class. It is time to point the blame at —
and challenge — the capitalist system.

WWP fights for socialism because the working class produces all wealth in society, and this wealth should remain
in their hands, not be stolen in the form of capitalist profits. The wealth workers create should be socially owned and its distribution planned to satisfy and guarantee basic human needs.

Since 1959, Workers World Party has been out in the streets defending the workers and oppressed here and worldwide. If you're interested in Marxism, socialism and fighting for a socialist future, please contact a WWP branch
near you. □

Defend the multinational, multigendered working class!

WW EDITORIAL

Apparently “Election Stress Disorder” is a real condition. Some voters are stressed, because they fear the prospects of the election of former President Donald Trump. Others are stressed, because they know the genocide in Palestine will continue no matter who gets elected president. Then there is the absolute fatigue due to being inundated by television ads, phone calls, mailings and texts imploring us to vote for one of the two capitalist candidates or to send them money.

Particularly disgusting are the constant ads for Trump, coupled with those for right-wing Congressional candidates. These blatantly appeal to the lowest forms of bigotry, especially against migrants and against the transgender community, often both in the same message. One Trump ad falsely accuses Vice President Kamala Harris of approving gender-affirming surgeries for undocumented migrants who are trans.

The Congressional campaign ads are just as horrendous. In Ohio, for example, Republicans supporting Senatorial candidate Bernie Moreno accused Democratic incumbent Sherrod Brown of allowing immigrants to come into the U.S. and commit murders and rapes. They also claim Brown supports gender-affirming surgeries for minors and allowing “biological males” — a slander of trans women — to use women’s bathrooms and play on girls’ sports teams.

So how have Democratic candidates responded to these ads and their weaponizing of hatred against the most oppressed? Have they come out in defense of undocumented workers?

No! On the contrary, one of Brown’s ads features border patrol officers touting his support for anti-migrant legislation.

Ads for Moreno and Trump conclude with a dig at non-binary people: “Brown is for they/them. Bernie Moreno is for you.”

Have the Democrats spoken up in support of the trans community? Hardly. The most recent ad from the Brown campaign stresses that Brown never voted to allow transgender minors to play on a team of their gender. The emphasis is on Moreno’s false statements, not on his vile transphobia.

Both the Democrats and the Republicans seek to demonstrate that they will uphold the interests and values of the billionaire class.

To make matters worse, at least one left-leaning third party candidate, Green Party vice presidential candidate Butch Ware, has been caught making a transphobic statement. (Advocate.com, Nov. 1)

Whether it’s the Democrats or the Greens, this is capitulation to bigotry, pure and simple. There is no justification for it.

While the program of Ware and presidential candidate Jill Stein has a number of bullet points supporting the LGBTQIA2S+ community, it should also call for the repeal of dozens of state bills that essentially criminalize trans youth and their health care providers.

Fight bigotry – no exceptions!

Workers World Party has a radically different approach. We are in full solidarity with every oppressed community in capitalist society. WWP believes all forms of bigotry are violations of the rights of the oppressed and are used to divide and conquer the working class. We reject this bigotry flat out.

And while we know in our bones that voting for capitalist politicians is a lose-lose situation, our party defends the basic democratic right to vote. This position is an act of solidarity with those who have been denied that right historically and politically — solidarity with all marginalized and disenfranchised sectors of our class, including people of color, incarcerated workers, houseless people, migrants and others.

We say no to white supremacy, misogyny, anti-LGBTQIA2S+ discrimination, ableism, xenophobia, etc.

WWP won’t cater to backward attitudes to win an election — or garner financial support from the bourgeoisie.

WWP has never been afraid to take an unpopular position. We know that the class struggle is not a popularity contest — it’s a struggle for power between the working class and the ruling class. To win we need unity, not division.

An injury to one is an injury to all! Solidarity forever!

Otherwise, these apologies amount to nothing but grandstanding. □

The election is finally over

ORGANIZE RESISTANCE

The November 5 election has happened, and the outcome is known worldwide. The most vile, disgusting, white supremacist, xenophobic, transphobic, ableist, misogynist, rapist, neofascist — the list goes on — will return to the White House in January.

These results have no doubt produced a wide range of emotions, be they despair, demoralization, frustration, fear, numbness, anger or feelings there are no words for. This is completely understandable.

A number of factors contributed to the loss by Vice President Kamala Harris to former president Donald Trump. The Democrats had absolutely no program to address very real concerns — a top concern of many voters polled — about a stagnant economy and a cost of living that has gone through the roof. There has been no letup in the U.S./Israeli genocide being committed against the Palestinian people under a Democratic administration. Why vote for four more years of this?

Still, it is painful to ponder that someone as despicable as Trump was able to fill the void, seemingly with ease.

This year's election results will require a great deal of thoughtful Marxist analysis in the weeks and months ahead. We have to have a historic, scientific and dialectical view regarding the collapse of bourgeois liberalism and social democracy.

But while analysis is important, working class revolutionaries, even under very difficult circumstances, have a primary responsibility to project a path forward. That path is one of uniting all forces, no matter the differences, to fight back against the inevitable attacks.

Karl Marx recognized in 1848 that history is the history of class struggle. Now, as we approach 2025, we have to elevate the struggle against bigotry, war and exploitation and build working-class solidarity. We literally have no other choice.

Let's cut to the chase. Some may be down, but we have to move on from licking our wounds. Young people who have taken to the streets for more than a year to confront the genocide were out throughout November 5, and protest demonstrations are planned for the days and weeks ahead. We salute them.

And in the coming days and weeks, we must answer with all forms of protest any attack that comes our way, whether it's union-busting, racism, misogyny, anti-LGBTQIA2S+ discrimination, migrant bashing and deportations, ableism or imperialist war. We will continue to be in the streets for Palestine — until liberation, from the river to the sea!

The resistance starts now. Organize, organize, organize! □
